Summary of reasons for decision:

The video file depicts the sexual abuse of a very young child by adults. It is deemed objectionable because it promotes and supports the exploitation of children for sexual purposes under s 3(2)(a) of the Films, Videos, and Publications Classification Act 1993. The video is intended for the arousal of adults with a sexual interest in children, and normalises and legitimises children as appropriate subjects for adult sexual attention. The video is also likely to be used to groom other young children, increasing the likelihood of exploitation. The objectionable classification interferes with the right to freedom of expression as affirmed by the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990, however it is consistent with Parliament's intention that publications that promote and support s3(2) criteria be deemed objectionable. The classification also reflects the concern of New Zealand society to protect its young and vulnerable members from sexual exploitation.
